At our Texas Medical Marijuana Doctors, we value the privacy of our patients and take great care to protect their personal information. This privacy policy outlines our commitment to protecting your privacy and the measures we take to ensure the confidentiality of your personal information.

Collection of Personal Information

We collect personal information from our patients in order to issue medical cannabis prescriptions. This information may include your name, address, contact information, social security number, and medical history. We only collect information that is necessary to provide our services and do not share this information with any third party without your express consent.

Protection of Personal Information

We take all necessary measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, theft, or loss. We use industry-standard encryption and security protocols to protect your personal information from unauthorized access or interception. We also ensure that all of our staff members are trained on the importance of confidentiality and are bound by strict confidentiality agreements.

Prescription Security

We issue prescriptions that cannot be copied or duplicated to prevent misuse or unauthorized access to medical cannabis. We take great care to ensure that our prescriptions are issued securely and only to patients who meet the necessary criteria.

Disclosure of Personal Information

We only disclose personal information to third parties when required by law or with your express consent. We do not sell or share personal information with any third party for any reason.

Access to Personal Information

You have the right to access your personal information held by our medical cannabis company at any time. If you wish to access your personal information, please contact our office and we will provide you with the necessary information.

Changes to Privacy Policy

We may update our privacy policy from time to time to reflect changes in our services or legal requirements. Any changes to our privacy policy will be published on our website and will take effect immediately.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about our privacy policy or the protection of your personal information, please contact our office at 844-832-4367.
